HOW TO SUBMIT

The editor welcomes previously unpublished essays in English or French on any aspect of the Renaissance, Reformation, or Early Modern world. Send essays as e-mail attachments to the Managing Editor (crrs.renref@utoronto.ca); please include a 100 word abstract.

The journal engages in blind peer review, so identifying details should be omitted from the body of the essay. Our style sheet is at <http://www.crrs.ca/publications/journals/renref/rrstyleen.htm>.

Scholars interested in reviewing books are invited to contact the Book Review Editors via the Editorial Office (crrs.renref@utoronto.ca). Reviews are solicited by the book review editors.

The journal circulates to more than 460 research libraries, and is available electronically through ITER.

THE NATALIE ZEMON DAVIS PRIZE

Natalie Zemon Davis was the Journal's first editor, and a prize in her honour is awarded to the best essay published in each volume of Renaissance and Reformation/Renaissance et Réforme.
