

Centre for Reformation and Renaissance Studies,
Victoria University in the University of Toronto

J. M. RICHARD CORBET and the TREBOUTE RESEARCH ASSISTANTSHIPS IN RENAISSANCE STUDIES

APPLICATION

These assistantships are intended to provide training and financial support to undergraduate students who have already demonstrated a commitment to Renaissance studies. The assistantships will be held at the Centre for Reformation and Renaissance Studies, Victoria University in the University of Toronto, where the student will be given the opportunity to be involved in CRRS research projects and activities. The maximum value of the Corbet research assistantship is $2,000 per year and work will begin at the end of September 2010. The maximum value of the Treboute assistantship is $1,000 and work will begin in January 2011. The precise amount of the award and the hours of work will be negotiated when an offer is made to the applicant(s).

Please submit one copy of the completed form and your most recent transcript to:

Professor Lynne Magnusson, Director
Centre for Reformation and Renaissance Studies
Victoria University in the University of Toronto
71 Queen's Park Crescent
Toronto, Ontario M5S 1K7

The application deadline is 20 September 2010.

Applicant information

Name:

Department:

Address:

Phone:

Email:

(continued on next page)

Academic background

What year are you in at this time? (E.g. 1st, 2nd)

What programs are you registered in? (E.g. Specialist in History)

Are you registered in the Renaissance Studies Program?

Have you taken a course in the Renaissance Studies Program? Yes No

If yes, indicate which course(s):

Write a brief paragraph describing your interest in the Renaissance and how this research assistantship might help you to further your studies.

Date: _____

Signature: _____